Even with the world getting darker, a new generation is learning to pray and obey like never before. This is their extraordinary story, an honest account of pain and perseverance alongside a pioneering mission and miraculous answers to prayer. It's the story of the 24-7 prayer movement, which started in 1999 in England and has since exploded to more than fifty countries. An army of normal individuals are now simultaneously praying night and day around the world. Things will never be the same. From a recovering "leadershipaholic": our best model is the first one. With all our sleek ministry models, it's a wonder our churches are declining—until we read Acts 6:4, "But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and the ministry of the word." After a long, sometimes trying ministry journey, Daniel Henderson was relieved to discover what the apostles knew from the start: The main thing must stay the main thing. It worked in their pagan times, and it will in ours. Old Paths, New Power: Reviving Our Churches through Prayer and the Ministry of the Word calls us back to the tried-and-true: pray and proclaim the word. Henderson, who leads a growing church revival ministry, guides you through the essentials of sparking a spiritual renaissance: Be a leader who walks with the Lord Develop a strong prayer culture in your life and ministry Preach with unction, dependence, and integrity Equip every saint for the work of the ministry Embrace the sufficiency of the gospel Our churches don't need fresh models and fancy things; they need the Holy Spirit, and He rains down when we pray and proclaim the word. Read Old Paths, New Power and follow God's master plan. Is revival possible in our generation? The Lord Jesus Christ said, "with God all things are possible" (Matthew 19:26). God is able to do more in a moment than we could in a lifetime. The problem is not with His lack of power but with our lack of preparation. Revival cannot be manufactured or manipulated. Spiritual awakenings come when God's people connect their prayers to God's purpose. In Revival Praying you will discover how one of the great prayers of the Bible can serve as a pattern for our prayer. The God who is a consuming fire will work if we will build the altar. New Revised Edition. The early church turned the world upside down. With only a few followers of Jesus filled with the Holy Spirit, the gospel message of love and transformation spread like wildfire; it could not be contained or held back. What was the secret—the "Jesus way"—behind such a radical movement of the gospel? And what would it take for a spiritual renewal to happen today—in your church, your community, your world, and your own heart? Gerard Long, president of Alpha USA, has seen that spiritual awakenings tend to occur when God's people understand their calling and prepare through prayer, personal renewal, and action. In Awakening, he offers a compelling vision for a "Jesus way" of widespread spiritual renewal, equipping you to better love people into the Kingdom of God. You'll become empowered to live the abundant life given to us in Christ—and step out in faith to fulfill God's calling. When God's Spirit moves, change happens! Prayer happens for many reasons, but no prayer is uttered by accident. When we pray, individual lives change. Imagine watching whole neighborhoods affected, cities and nations touched by the power of prayer. With the key concepts taught in Intercessors Arise, you'll learn to release your potential in prayer through practical and personal application steps. Use it alone or with a group, and stand in the gap for a world in need of change. What the World Needs Now is An Awakening In 2007, God spoke to Jennifer LeClaire about a Third Great Awakening in America. He later told her the awakening would spill over the shores of the United States and impact many nations—just like the Azusa Street Revival that birthed the Pentecostal Movement. The Lord also told Jennifer it would grow darker before the light shined brightly again. This is Scriptural as Isaiah 60:2 tells us, "Darkness as black as night covers all the nations of the earth, but the glory of the LORD rises and appears over you." When revival comes, Isaiah 9:2 will be true, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; Those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them a light has shined." It all starts with a personal awakening. Jennifer LeClaire, a prophetic revivalist who has been laboring in the prayer movement for the last twenty-years, has developed a 21-day devotional with prayers and decrees that will spark a personal awakening—and equip you to pray for revival and awakening in your nation. As the founder of Awakening House of Prayer, her life's work is to gather, train and mobilize intercessors who push back darkness and watch God heal nations. This powerful book features chapters that offer Scriptures, strategies and prayers, including: -Understanding conditions for revival and awakening -What hinders God from moving in a nation -Prophetic words about revival and awakening -Strategic prayers and decrees that drive results God is looking for intercessors in this hour who will stand in the gap and make up the hedge. When you pray and decree God's way, you'll see changes in your life, your family, your city and nation. This book is an introduction to prayer, drawing on Eastern and Western traditions. Excerpt from Prayers of the Social Awakening The Lord's Prayer is so familiar to us that few have stopped to understand it. The general tragedy of misunderstanding which has followed Jesus throughout the centuries has frustrated the purpose of his model prayer also. He gave it to stop vain repetitions, and it has been turned into a contrivance for incessant repetition. The churches have employed it for their ecclesiastical ritual. Yet it is not ecclesiastical. There is no hint in it of the Church, the ministry, the doctrines of theology, or the sacraments though the Latin Vulgate has turned the petition for the daily bread into a prayer for the super-substantial bread of the sacrament. It paints a picture of both desperation and hope; without spiritual revival our country has no hope, but when it comes we will need no other hope. Drawing on an abundance of stories from ordinary people who have experienced the power of life-changing revival in their own lives, this book provides a contemporary roadmap for spiritual awakening and real revival. Passionate and story-rich, OneCry

In 1988, I wrote a book called Why Pray?, which went through six printings by Creation House and one by the author. That book was written because I knew I had something to say to the prayers of America. I have, over the past fifty years of ministry, read scores of books on the subject of prayer. Most of them dealt with some rather fundamental issues, but none seemed to answer the questions I had regarding this matter. I wanted to know why God, who has all power, a plan and a will would need us to pray. I had read early in my life with God a statement attributed to John Wesley in which he said, "God does nothing, but in answer to prayer." He did not explain the statement, but he sure caused me to think. If God does nothing but in answer to prayer, then prayer must be one of the most important things a Christian, can do. I believed the statement, but did not understand it and Wesley did not explain himself. Later I came to believe the following: God, who is sovereign, certainly has the power to do anything He wills to do whether anyone prays or not, however, I can say, from a careful study of the Word and a thorough examination of life's experiences; as a rule, God does nothing, but in answer to prayer. THE LAW OF PRAYER is a follow-up of Why Pray? I have included in it some of the same material, with several new chapters, a new cover, forward and updated illustrations. David Shibley will write the forward. Other recommendations will come from Bishop Ken Ulmer of Los Angeles, CA, Pastor Steve Dixon, Jack Hayford and Mike Bickel. My Purpose in writing this: • Is to instruct, encourage, and inspire God's children to pray by convincing them that He will hear their prayer as quickly as He will hear the prayer of anyone. • Is to share the truth that God our Father desires to have a relationship with each of His children and has made a way for this to happen. His door is never closed, and all are invited to come in for a chat. • Is to communicate a few more things I have learned to the thousands who read Why Pray? • Last, but not least, I want to obey my Father. Fifteen years after her brother was killed by a drunk driver, Harriette Mandeville saw an apparition of him in her kitchen, sowing the seeds of spiritual awakening within her and opening an avenue for her to explore her truth to life's biggest questions. As she learned ways to connect with the Divine, Mandeville began to expand her identity into larger realms of perception, understanding, and communication. Lotus Hawk, the intuitive, was born. As an intuitive, Lotus Hawk tunes into spiritual lines of communication that transcend mortal existence. With the intent of helping others do the same, she shares a framework of guided daily spiritual practices based on prayer, meditation, writing, and affirmation; a collection of prayers and reflections for guided conversation with God throughout the day; and a compilation of messages she has received throughout the years for others and the world. In honor of the one-hundredth anniversary of the 1908 Social Creed and the development of a Social Creed for the twenty-first century, Chris Iosso and Elizabeth Hinson-Hasty have compiled new prayers from well-known church and community leaders. This seminal volume includes the words from the new Social Creed and prayers reflecting social justice themes referenced in the creed, including poverty, economic justice, and care for the environment. Walter Brueggemann, John Buchanan, Tony Campolo, Katie Geneva Cannon, and Marian Wright Edelman are among contributors, making this an important resource for laity and congregational leaders in every denomination for the next century. Estelle, a young woman in an isolated Arkansas county, longs to know God in a more personal way. Surrounded by intimidating characters and frightening events, Estelle's heart seeks refuge in prayer and in her discovery of a powerful and loving God. Against the odds of poverty, pride, and the provocations of a skeptical husband, Estelle discovers the secrets of prayer, surrender, and obedience to God, releasing the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in a way that transforms her husband, her family, and an entire community. Many of the amazing events in this narrative actually happened, and are testimony to the love of a powerful, yet personal, God who hears the prayers of His children, meets urgent needs, and answers in miraculous ways in the most difficult of times. The story of ESTELLE reminds us that no darkness is beyond the reach of prayer. The remarkable experiences of ESTELLE will astonish you and inspire you to experience the love of God in a greater way, increase your dependence on prayer, and deepen your own relationship with Jesus Christ. Catastrophic events have heated up the world, making it ripe for revival. All proceeds the missionary author receives go to shining Christ's light in the darkness. Having asked for deeper intimacy with the Holy Spirit and a greater revelation of His Person, an assignment came forth to "write the prayer for 2019" for the congregation. Accepting the assignment to get before the Lord and write what was given, the following is that which flowed from the Spirit, to the heart, to the mind, and to the pen: Ten prayers that issued forth from the heart of the Father, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, to usher in this season of awakening that generations have been crying out for; words that can be used to not only usher in the season, but maintain and sustain the move of God in seasons to come. In response to a request for more of the Holy Spirit, what was revealed through these prayers was a heavenly desire from the heart of the Father for more of the Holy Spirit across the globe, not just for one, but for us all. "God, don't take my little girl. Please don't take her. Please, God!" As Brian Alarid cried out on a hospital floor for his daughter's life in May of 2016, he had no idea God was about to use him to ignite an international prayer movement. Today, America Prays has mobilized 24/7 prayer in 1,200 churches in 17 states while World Prays has mobilized 24/7 prayer in 10 nations, in addition to tens of thousands of believers, families, businesses, and ministries, all partnered together in 24/7 prayer for global spiritual awakening. But through it all, Brian has learned that while following God's calling is the most fulfilling purpose there is, it is also the hardest battle. In truth, "Prayer is warfare." Join Brian on a journey through the depths of despair to the mountain tops of prayer, where the hard and painful questions are asked, and be inspired to pray and encounter Jesus like never before. Although little is known about Elizabeth Dabney's youth, she often said she learned the value of prayer from her mother, who always kept a family altar in their home. Mother Dabney sat down and documented for the world, her detailed thoughts and experiences about really living a life devoted to prayer and what the resulting effects would be to personal ministry.
